

Environmental Design Group Acquires BCS, LLC in Mason, Ohio

March 25, 2024, Akron, Ohio

Environmental Design Group is thrilled to announce that it has recently completed the acquisition of BCS, LLC, an engineering, surveying, right-of-way acquisition, and environmental services firm in Mason, Ohio. This strategic move represents a significant milestone in our growth and presents us with exciting opportunities to further elevate our offerings and expand our capabilities. We stay committed to excellence, innovation, and client experience and believe this acquisition will enhance our level of service to both current and future clients.

The newly acquired team shares our core values of trust, sustainability, family, collaboration, and integrity, making them an ideal partner in our mission to deliver exceptional results while making a positive impact on the communities we serve. Together we provide innovative solutions that enhance infrastructure, improve quality of life, and preserve the natural environment.

As we integrate the strengths of both organizations, we remain dedicated to the professionalism and quality that our clients have come to rely on and are confident that this acquisition will only enhance our ability to deliver value. We are excited about the possibilities this acquisition affords us and are grateful for the opportunity to continue serving the communities we have worked with in the past as well as new partners in need of our services.

Thank you for your trust and partnership as we move into this new chapter together.
